

SENATOR MOORE: Arguably, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator Schimek, may I ask you a question.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Certainly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I didn't get your answer.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Certainly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, okay. Senator Schimek, is it your intent to remove these vending machines from the reach of all minors?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That is correct, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In view of what Senator Moore said about these vending machines being available in restaurants where minors can patronize the restaurants, are you in favor of this amendment?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No, Senator Chambers. But I wouldn't be opposed to an amendment that allowed vending machines in establishments where only adults are present. I mean if there's some way we can establish that criteria, then I would not be opposed.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator Moore, may I ask you another question? Aren't there statutes in existence now that indicate the types of establishments which cannot sell liquor to minors?

SENATOR MOORE: None of them can sell liquor to minors, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I mean where minors cannot come, or can minors come to any establishment where liquor is served, even a tavern or bar?

SENATOR MOORE: I don't know the answer to that, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, Senator Nelson just said she thinks so. It seems to me that there would not be a way to have an
